Good morning,

Please share this information widely.

As part of our efforts to keep you informed of OSHA's activities, we want to let you know that the Department of Labor, including OSHA, has issued its Fall 2023 Regulatory Agenda. A listing of Department of Labor (including OSHA) rulemaking in the pre-rule, proposed rule, and final rule stages is available here. Rules that are classified as long-term actions are listed here.

 As information, Federal agencies post their regulatory agendas on the Reginfo.gov website and Mobile.Reginfo.gov twice a year to provide a snapshot of their rulemaking priorities.

 Thank you,

Justine L. Som
